Customer Reviews

I was not expecting to like this book as much as I did. It's well written, funny, and has strong themes of self-discovery. It's kind of like a modern version of The Catcher in the Rye.

Delightful!! A warm coming of age story about two 14 year old boys who explore the countryside but ultimately discover the power of friendship.

If you can read German, this is an entertaining book of the summer break of 2 adolescent boys from very different backgrounds

Read this for my college level German class. Didn't have to read it all, but it's a pretty interesting read. Probably suitable for a middle-school level (if you're fluent in German and are reading this as someone at a German school). I got a bit bored because it was required reading, but the plot is interesting.
